Woodland Hills, CA -- (SBWire) -- 06/03/2019 --Family Divorce Solutions (FDS) is pleased to announce one of their members is a recipient of the Eureka Award from Collaborative Practice of California.

Collaborative Practice of California (CPCal) is a group that facilitates divorce and civil collaboration for the entire state of California. The Eureka Award is awarded to those who "have made significant contributions and demonstrated an abiding dedication to establishing and sustaining Collaborative Practice in California." CPCal awards the Eureka award to no more than 5 people per year.

For her part, Fosgate was surprised to be selected for an award. She said, in part, "I am honored and humbled to receive this award and I thank all my colleagues who nominated me. Being a Eureka Award winner inspires me to continue offering my no court services and to encourage couples to divorce differently."

Fosgate is an attorney who is a member in Family Divorce Solutions. FDS works with couples we encounter with unreconcilable differences, a collaborative mediated divorce that is easier on all spouses involved. Couples are encouraged to make use of the extensive services and resources offered by FDS. This includes counseling, attorney advice and financial options to help during a potentially trying time.

The website has an extensive listing of services, blogs with many excellent tips and advice on divorce and a list of members. There is also extensive discussion on collaborative divorce, what it is and how it works for all people involved.
